

THE ODD COUPLE

BY NEIL SIMON
DIRECTED BY CARL BISHOP

It has inspired films, television shows and cartoons. The playwright himself adapted the script and produced a female version. This season Morpheus Theatre is going back to the original to visit mismatched roomies, Oscar and Felix, in Neil Simon's The Odd Couple. When Felix finds himself facing a divorce, he moves in with Oscar. The two are friends, but they are also oil and water: Oscar is laid back and sloppy, Felix is high-strung and a neat freak – not the best combination for domestic harmony, but it's definitely an ideal recipe for laughter. Join us this fall, as we open our 2011/2012 season with this hilarious duo, this story about friends, life, love and the twists and turns of it all.

Picasso at the Lapin Agile

by Steve Martin
Directed by Alice Nelson

Pablo Picasso and Albert Einstein meet in a bar. No, really. Each on the verge of the accomplishments that shaped their notoriety and introduced their genius to the world, these two phenomenal minds meet at the Lapin Agile in Paris, 1904, to discuss physics and art while attempting to impress a beautiful woman. With a cast of unique and colourful characters in the bar with them, including a visitor from the future – this play has been introduced with the question: "Ever wonder what it would have been like if wild and crazy Steve Martin had written an episode of 'The Twilight Zone'?" You can discover the answer for yourself in January of 2012, when Morpheus Theatre proudly presents Picasso at the Lapin Agile to Calgary audiences.

Gilbert and Sullivan's HMS Pinafore

Directed by Dawn Darsi

So give three cheers and one cheer more – it's time once again for Pinafore! Sir Joseph Porter will arrive in Calgary in the spring of 2012, and so will his sisters, and his cousins, and his aunts. One of the most beloved comic operettas Gilbert and Sullivan created, HMS Pinafore tells the tale of Josephine: who is the captain's daughter, who is to be married to Sir Joseph Porter, but is in love with a British Tar, one Ralph Rackstraw – hilarity and silliness ensue in this nautical romp. Oh Rapture!! All in good fun, no institution is safe from the lighthearted pokes of this favourite musical. Join us next spring for declarations of love and the complexities of class systems – bring your sisters and your cousins and your aunts!
