

By Michael Frayn
Directed by Sean Anderson

If you were to witness the process of bringing a play from script to stage, of course what you saw could be compared to a tightly run ship, a well oiled machine...and in the case of Noises Off, a slippery slope of nonstop, high-energy fun. In this raucous farce, everything that could go wrong goes very wrong, much to our amusement. We get to watch as a troupe of actors and their director struggle to put the finishing touches on the comedy "Nothing On." During this play within a play, from dress rehearsal to 3 months in to performance, we are delighted with dropped lines, slamming doors, forgotten props, whisky, missed entrances, personality clashes, drama on a grand and pregnant scale, late starts and sardines; all of which conspire to keep you laughing. Back by popular demand, Morpheus Theatre is proud to present Michael Frayn's hysterical hit, Noises Off.

SEPTEMBER 21 - 29, 2012

The Diary of Anne Frank
 by Frances Goodrich and Albert Hackett, newly adapted by Wendy Kesselman
 Directed by Amanda Liz Cutting

Morpheus Theatre is pleased to present this hopeful and heartwarming classic. A stage adaptation of the book The Diary of a Young Girl, this play has been touching the hearts of audiences since 1955. It tells the tale of Anne Frank and her family, along with a handful of others, hiding from the Nazis in an attic during the occupation of Holland in 1945. Somehow, even though she was surrounded by the horrors of war and the injustices of prejudice and persecution, this young girl blossomed into a curious, intelligent and faithful young woman. Her words and her story survived and continue to inspire, move and teach us all a little bit about what it is to be human.

Aladdin
 a Pantomime

Directed by Jane Phillips Taylor
 By Damian Foster, David Bovey,
 Steve Clark and John Dowell

Join Morpheus Theatre and the incomparable Widow Twankey for a rollicking, family-friendly trip to the Far East this December; we'll take the flying carpet and avoid the holiday line-ups at the airport! The best of storytelling and pantomime meet in this traditional favourite: our hero Aladdin, who is really a lass-in-a-lad's clothing, a sinister villain, a beautiful princess, a genie and a laundress are just some of the characters you will meet in what promises to be a sosh up of laughter, song and dance, jokes and puns...but don't worry, it will all come out in the wash. Magic rings, magic lamps and secret caves: Open Sesame!

Gilbert and Sullivan's
The Gondoliers
 Directed by Tim Elliott

List and learn! It is with all necessary and appropriate pomp, Ducal and otherwise, that we announce, pronounce and soundly declare, our final show of the season will be: Gilbert and Sullivan's, The Gondoliers! This 12th collaborative operetta by the beloved pair is set in Venice and is rife with Nobility, mistaken identities, Royalty, young lovers in love with and married to the wrong people, commoners, wit, patter, a Cachucha and of course, Rapture! You may have to wait until the last show of our season, but there will always be Rapture! To bookend our 18th season, we are happy to host The Gondoliers once more. We, as in the common pronoun used when there is more than one of us, or We, the Royal We...we're not sure anymore, but we are sure you'll enjoy The Gondoliers!

March 29 - April 13, 2013
 *No performance on Easter Sunday (March 31st)
