MTI's All Together Now! - A Global Event Celebrating Local Theatre is an opportunity for schools and theatres around the world to locally produce and perform an exclusive musical revue featuring songs from MTI's beloved shows. Our Community Theatre Collaboration aims to perform ATN! live & streamed as an event to bring our community together, and feature talented people in ensemble & solo performances.

The revue features 15 slots for musical performances with multiple song options per slot, so theatres have flexibility with how they present the show. The option to choose from two or three fantastic songs for each slot allows producers to tailor the show to best fit their artistic/creative vision, the talents of their cast, and the composition of their audience.

This production has a lot of flexibility for casting. While we cannot change any music or lyrics of the songs, any person of any gender can sing any song. Solos can also be split up to add more singers.*
